We believe all individuals have rights and a voice in treatment that will be met with respect and dignity.

We believe children and families thrive best in physically and emotionally safe environments.

We believe all children and families have unique strengths, abilities, and talents and that with the right supports and encouragement youth can achieve their full potential.

We know parent involvement is critical in helping children learn to interact in a healthy way with others, manage their emotions, and communicate their feelings and needs.

Our Youth Pride program provides counseling and clinical services to youth ages 10-22, who identify as lesbian, gay, bisexual, transgender, queer, questioning, intersex, asexual, or have gender identity issues and who are experiencing emotional, mental health, family, school or community related difficulties as a result of their sexual or gender identity.

Services focus on:
- supporting LGBTQIA youth and their families
- addressing identity formation/development
- coping with oppression and discrimination
- overcoming isolation, loneliness, depression, anxiety and/or other emotional stressors
- addressing fears related to coming out
- developing healthy behavior patterns and reducing at risk behaviors
- establishing supports such as family acceptance and safe affirming environments in schools and other setting
- building upon the strengths of LGBTQIA youth to improve social, emotional, and behavioral functioning.

Family participation is strongly encouraged. By assisting families to develop supportive, caring, and healthy responses, youth are more likely to function and address external stress in a healthy manner.

Specific topics for family sessions may include:
- supporting emotional reactions related to disclosure
- understanding how to support youth who identify as LGBTQIA
- healthy communication patterns
- boundaries
- parenting skills
- advocacy
- abuse/neglect issues
- problem solving
- support systems
- family strengths
